Steve was like a brother to me.....he would take me to basketball practice when my brother was busy. And I loved going to his shop "Heads Together" to get my hair cut - no one could cut my hair like he did. Friends Always, Kim Tracy-Spradlin

Steve was like another son to us. son Mike, Steve and Ray were at our home all the time - they would camp out and sing and play guitars or whatever they had to make music - remember the time they ate a fruit-cocktail cake - I told them they would all be sick - Steve loved to come and eat biscuits, gravy, sausage with us on Saturday mornings ' he was part of family - and he loved Bud - they had lots of good talks. know Steve will be missed.
