Dear Charolet, Our sincerest condolences in the loss of Steve, one of the kindest and most caring gentlemen we have ever known. We treasure the memories of meeting you and Steve for the first time, while camping on the beach at Ninilchik, Alaska, digging for clams on our RV travels. You were both such special folks that we wanted to try to continue our friendship across the miles from Florida to Oklahoma, and we detoured to visit you on our trips to see relatives in California as often as we could, each time were treasured moments. You also took the time to visit with us in Florida, when Ally was a tiny little girl, and we are amazed that one so young could remember that. Our hearts go out to you and the family at this time. With love and hugs, Carole and Noel.
