Sister Jackie Villa lit a candle in honor of Edgar.

Dear brother I never thought I would be leaving you a message like this. I just want to tell you how I love you how much Adriel loves you and how much we miss you. This is so hard to believe and understand why u had to leave us. I will always remember you as the funny, fun, caring most lovable person ever. Thank you for taking care of me not only as a sister but as a daughter. Going to your home made me feel safe and you never left me out. I love you so much and I will love your forever. Please visit me soon and take care of us. Ps brother Adriel still gets a little nervous and smiles when we say "ay viene edgar" ! I love you brother I love you so much!!!!
