years. After Blue Chip closed, she and Ed helped son Larry in his automotive garage. Betty and Ed moved to Colorado for a few years to enjoy the mountains. While there, she worked at a restaurant as a “Hostess with the Mostest”.

Betty loved going to church. She was a member of Beaver Street Baptist Church in Jenks for several years.

Betty had several hobbies during the years. She enjoyed crafts of various kinds and also liked gardening, sewing, cooking and homemaking. She loved to dress up in her pretty clothes and jewelry. Christmas time was special to her as she decorated her house into a winter wonderland.

SHE WAS A BRIGHT STAR!
