I have so many fun memories of Bill. There is one that I have shared with countless people drawing lots of laughter. It was a rainy week day night about 10 PM and Jim was working out of town. I opened my side-by-side refrigerator and the entire right door fell off. I have this image of him coming to my rescue, standing at my front door in the rain carrying a toolbox and wearing his great big smile. He found some bolts to make do and put it back in place. We certainly shared a few laughs over that one. Another fun memory happened one of the many weekends that he shared at our lake cabin training his beloved Labrador, Bart. The early morning hours would echo across the cove "Bart, come"!!!! that particular morning we heard a voice from across the cove in the early hours of the morning saying "oh no, Bart is back". No one loved life more or lived life any bigger Then Bill Richards. He will leave a void for so many. Paula and Jim Brown
