My friend and sister in Christ Debbie Krueger knew I was struggling with health issues and called me up one day and said her sister - in - law was in town and asked if it was okay if they came over and she could pray over me. Of course, I said yes ! This is how I met Janie! She was one of a kind loveable Christian woman that never met a stranger! She was loved by all! It was a pleasure to have her and a good friend of hers stay at our house for a week for one of their high school Reunions. I was truly blessed to have met Janie and have her in my life as a sister in Christ and prayer warrior! I will never forget your beautiful smile! Love you forever my beautiful friend. Prayers of comfort, strength to the family.Love, Kim Smith

Dear Russell, Kevin & Beth, and Deanne & Roger:My deepest condolences are with you all as you say goodbye, for now, to such a beautiful and loved woman! I am so thankful for the time I spent with Janie as we served the Lord together in Aglow. She was such a bright ray of sunshine, joy, humor, and friendship! She knew how to make people feel welcome, loved, and well fed! (We all loved the different appetizers, desserts, and full-spread meals that she'd prepared for Aglow and for me personally over the years.) I'll also miss her hugs and her huge smile! And of course, our shared love of butterflies! I can't help but notice that she went to Heaven on my anniversary, and I think, could it be that she met my mother-in-law Rhonda in Heaven yet, maybe? They would have a lot of interests in common. ;-) She moved there before we were married. Much too young, much too soon. The passing of a Wife/Mom/Mother-in-law is not easy at all. We grieved longer than we thought we would, but yet, we were thankful in the process. Our Father God was with us and I know He is with you all as you move through this process of mourning her moving 'away' much too soon. There will be days of such great memories that bring joy, and then a moment later, tears of sadness because you're missing her so much. That's where you'll get to experience the intense love, compassion, and grace of our Father, our Jesus, and our sweet Comforter, Holy Spirit. We also know that Janie will be cheering you all on from the balcony of Heaven and will get to see significant events in your lives.Love and Comfort to you All,Emily & Daniel MartinDallas, Texas

My family, Debbie, Valerie, Ava together watched Janie Reinwald's pod cast funeral service from Broken Arrow, OK., (where they lived across the street from us) today. Russell worked for me in WY, KY, OK, IN, MO, and IL. (as a lead equipment operator) So, we were friends with him and Janie for many years. Friends are hard to come by, in my life being in business it was mostly they wanted something from me which made them be friendly, except when I fired one. Janie and Russell were true friends. Janie was always smiling, friendly, interested with a Christ Loving heart that she loved to share. We love Janie, Russell, Kevin, and Deanne. When I think about a real true Christian person, it without any doubt, is and was Janie Reinwald. The funeral service had many friends speak about her love of family, God, Church, and friends. Janie, you have received your perfect healing. We do miss you but the memories of you will stay with us for a lifetime. Lastly; I close this tribute this way as Janie answered the phone every time I called her, She answered, "Jesus Loves You" What a true faithful Christian lady, Janie Reinwald.

Russell & Janie and Kids have been our friends for more than 30 years and they are good strong Christian Friends. We love their family. I called them several times over the years, when Janie answered her first words and greeting was "Jesus Loves You" Janie was a strong dedicated Christian wife, mother & friend to everyone she met and always had a helping hand for all. Due to family situation today we will not be coming to her service, we live a long way from Tulsa but our hearts are with you all. I could go on and on but our love and friendship with Janie but my last words today is, as Janie always said, "Jesus Loves You" and Janie we will see you in Heaven.

I am so glad to have met and known Janie. What a sweet and wonderful lady. Her love for Jesus was evident as well as her love for others. I'm so glad that death has lost its sting through the death and resurrection of Jesus! We WILL get to visit again in heaven! God, bless and comfort Janie's family at this time. Lovingly, Dalia O'Hara
