To Frank's niece. I'm so sorry that you have lost such a sweet, genuine, and loving Uncle. I was part of a group that delivered Meals on Wheels to Frank when he lived on Hartford Ave. He was my favorite client because he was always friendly, happy, upbeat, and always said "god bless" when i was leaving. He always made my day better when i had the opportunity to interact with him. He often mentioned you. i know he loved and looked forward to your visits from Texas. One of my friends said "we need more Frank Heaths in this world". I totally agree. My heart goes out to you and your family during your loss. I will remember Frank's beautiful blue and kind eyes forever. Respectfully, Sylvia Brown
