Jack, you were a brave man with a good heart. I knew you from that first time than you boarded the school bus in the third grade. You are missed by all your friends and family. Go with God, my old friend.

Jack was a great fun loving proud father & grandfather. He always made time for anyone in need and never let any physical disability slow him down. So glad to have shared so many moments with him over the years at his jewelry store, home and special occasions. He will be missed but be proud of all the accomplishments he had. Especially his girls! Wife, daughter and grand daughters made him the proudest.
