I remember when u came into my life..my daughter saw ur pain and thought some how i could help u thru it...i thought maybe this was why God kept me here when my husband died..to help u...i was where u were....for 6 years i was grieving..all i wanted 2 do was help uwow was i wrong...i never expected that the table would be turned on me...only a man like YOU could bring ME out of my dark place... u were gentle, patient, kind, loving, thoughtful, respectful, funny, and of course full of urself!! Without hesitation u became my best friendu brought back the light inside of me that i thought i had lost forever ...YOU made me want to live life again, not just exist thru it..several people tried to help me, even my own children, YOU did it Rick Turner YOU did it!! I am eternally grateful to God that he put u in my life! This is not the end, i will see u on the other side!4ever my luv, Me

I would like to send my sincere condolences to the Turner family. I remember the first time I ever met Ricky and Barry. Rick was such a sweet guy and I loved that little chuckle he had. RIP Ricky. You will forever be missed.Terri Walker-Sitler
