Dan and I have memories of Bill years ago at Grace Fellowship when He and Gloria worked In the children church. He wore his cowboy hat, and red handkerchief around his neck greeting all the kids as they went boy. He was faithful each Sunday. He loved being gospel Bill. And we loved him. Great person and loved God, and people. He and Gloria raised some wonderful kids that followed in his footsteps. I know he will be missed, but I'm sure he will want to be right where he is at. And he is healed!!And we all will see him again
