We'll always remember the family gatherings: Good food and lots of love shared around Melba and Delphine's table; chats in the living room next to a cozy fire; stories of days gone by.

My father in law Melba Jones was a WW2 veteran and received a quilt of valor from a local quilt guild. Ive known Melba 49 yrs and he has set a example of a dedicated Christian life. A loving husband husband father and grandfather. My memory is before Sherm and I were married my 65 VW broke down in Tulsa traffic on the way home from work. I called him and he got my vw started and bought a new starter and battery for it. That was just the beginning of things he did for me and other family members.
