She was admired for her love of antiques, her wonderful collections, and her dedication to the preservation and restoration of historic sites. JoAnn was my third cousin. I am a generation younger than most of my cousins, and didn't get to grow up with them as my cousin Margaret Trammell did, but loved seeing them, especially as I became an adult and got to know them better. Whenever I did get to see JoAnn, I enjoyed her so much. She was so lively and sweet, intelligent and accomplished. I wish I could have lived closer to her and seen her more frequently. I would have loved to go antiquing with her. She was loving, and very loved. My prayers are with cousins Johnny and Marty, and all of the family and friends. God bless this wonderful lady, and her memory. Timi Fields Hammons Ash Grove MO
