Leslie Dyer

JUN 28, 1961 - JAN 5, 2021

Leslie Marie Dyer, 59, of Broken Arrow, OK passed away and received her wings on January 5, 2021 in Tulsa, OK. Leslie was born June 28, 1961 in Pryor, OK to Lawrence E. and Latricia Guinan.

Leslie lived in and around Tulsa area her entire life. She went to Catholic Schools mostly but graduated from Booker T High school in 1979. She had many talents over the years from working in credit unions, healthcare and retired in 2012 from Hillcrest as a medical staff credentialing specialist.

Once she retired then the work really started. She was following her dream refurbishing old furniture. She would work day and night to keep items on standby to put in her two resale booths in Broken Arrow.

She loved gardening, camping and traveling but she cherished her kids and grandkids the most. " Don't mess with Momma Bear"

She is so loved and will be missed by all who knew and loved her. Just remember the brightest star in the sky is nana and she has received her wings. Because tears are falling from the sky above in the most joyful celebration all the other angels in her honor.

" Let Go Let God"

She is preceded in death by James W. Guinan (Bobbie Guinan).

She is survived by her husband, Jerry D. Dyer, of the home; parents Lawrence Guinan and Latricia Shrum; brothers Joe Guinan, Chris Guinan and Steven Willis; son Gerald D. Holtzhauer; daughter Gennifer A. Holtzhauer; son James (Dusty) Wilson; grandchildren Hailey and Justen Moore, Kylee, Madison , Maxwell and Amelia Holtzhauer; great granddaughter Serenity Vance and many other nieces, nephews and aunts and uncle.
