Jerry was so kind to EVERYONE he met. He treated everyone with respect. From the CEO of the organization to the guy in the mailroom. That's what I admired most about him. He loved his family very much and he loved God. What a great person!

Jerry is a man's man...our son's grew up together...going to church, school and participating in all sports...Jerry always had a positive, peaceful, joyful demeanor...it was contagious.he is a devout believer and was not afraid to share his Christian catholic faith.He helped us facilitate the very first Tulsa "Pregnancy Resource Clinic" coalition...it is still going strong today.i remember one Thanksgiving...some of us dads and sons were playing a touch football game...somehow, i ended up trying to block Jerry on a play...needless to say, it didn't go well for me...i go a buck 65 soaking wet...but he was gracious enough to not maim me for life...he is a mountain of a man...in stature...in family...in grace...and in faith.Rest in blissful peace.dan butchee
