Ben and I have been good friends since 1971, teaching English at TJC/TCC, playing hearts at lunchtime, camping with other friends, having long conversations about all sorts of things, especially theology and religious beliefs. His friendship was a true comfort for me during hard times, and I pray that our friendship was a blessing for him as well. Truly, a man who did justice and walked humbly with his Lord. Ben, I will miss you terribly. Mike C
