My husband and I have known Marsha for 50 years, meeting when we lived across the street from her and her family in Tucson, AZ. We became really good friends, sharing many good thoughts on raising our children, and even when we moved away to a different state, we still wrote many letters back and forth. We got to visit each other often in later years. Marsha has been a wonderful friend of mine and I am glad to have met her way back in Tucson, Arizona. Lorene and Keith Richardson
