Paula Denise Snider

DEC 18, 1956 - JUN 21, 2021

Paula Denise Snider lost a very brief battle with cancer on Monday, June 21st before she even got a chance to fight it. Everyone who knows her knows that is the only possible way this stubborn lady would have ever lost a fight.

Born in December 1956, she accomplished many amazing things. Her two daughters and her eight grandchildren would like you to think that list includes them....

Paula would never come clean on her scandalous work in Chicago in the 70's or her affinity for aging worldwide pop stars. But she did create a new version of the Mission Impossible theme music that was a clucking success. bawk bawk

Paula was a wonderful and silly Nana, a caring friend who had surrounded herself with a throng of women who she thought of as sisters, but she was terrible at paying attention to even gravity when there was a plane buzzing above her head.

Paula Denise Snider was a friend to everyone she met and her enormous presence can only truly be felt in the gaping absence it leaves in the hearts of those who loved her.

She is already missed.

Celebration of Life Service will be 11:00 am, Monday, June 28, 2021 at Forest Park Christian Church in Tulsa. PLEASE WEAR SOMETHING FLORAL AS A TRIBUTE TO HER LOVE OF FLOWERS in lieu of donating flowers, her family set up a GoFundMe account to allow this amazing woman to rest in the one place, Italy, that she never got to make it to because of Covid. The link for the gofundme is:

I met Paula when I worked at Samson and we became friends. What a shock that her life has been cut short. She was a lovely person and we shared some happy times together. RIP Paula. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. Deepest sympathies from Jane

We loved taking goofy "skinny arm" photos whether in the office...

...or in the field. Paula, you will always be my sunshine.
