David Goodwin lit a candle in honor of Douglas.

So many memories; I could write a book! Doug could sell iceboxes to Eskimos and could keep an audience in stitches with nothing but an empty soap box for a prop. He was a great cousin and good friend. RIP

I can't add much to improve on David's memories of Doug, but I will say that anyone who never heard him play the saxophone was really missing something. I loved him a lot, and will miss him.

Memories only last if you share them
