Blanche was a customer we had for over 15 years and she was the sweetest person I had ever met. She would send me cards for every Christmas and she sent me a card when I was sick and even when my dad passed away. She is missed dearly and I will never forget this amazing loving woman ever. She is truly with God now. Love you Blanche

Blanche was a lovely woman. We were her neighbors for 37 years. When I would visit with her, she always remembered details and ages of our sons. She told me how she had enjoyed watching me when I would wait for the city bus across the street from her home, while I was pregnant with our son Ben. We took our dressed up sons to see Blanche and Jim on many Halloweens. I hope they enjoyed that, as much as we did. When we got our Boston Terrier Garbo, we took her to see Jim and Blanche. I always enjoyed visiting with Blanche. Blanche always kept her home so clean and neat. She was always kind and funny. We will have good memories of Blanche and Jim as long as we live. I miss you Blanche. David and Jill Crawford
