Jerri Lynn Lewis

AUG 12, 1953 - SEP 7, 2021

Jerri Lynn Lewis, born to Jerry and Phyllis Brewer of Broken Arrow, passed away Tuesday, September 7, 2021 in Connecticut. She was a devoted and beloved mother, sister, daughter and friend. She leaves behind a legacy of faith, love, kindness and serving her fellow man. Although she deserves all of the pomp and circumstance this world has to offer, she was a humble woman and requested a small, simple graveside service.

She is predeceased by her mother and father, her brother Randy and sister Becky. She is survived by her son Darrel, daughter Sarah, sisters Andrea and Donna, nieces, nephews, great nieces/nephews, a slew of extended family too numerous to individually mention, and the countless lives she touched along the way. She spent her life helping hurting people.

Jerri will be laid to rest at Floral Haven Memorial Gardens

Jerri & i shared a friendship that endured the passage of time. From our 5th grade class at Lindberg Elementary, I had plans on going to the East coast to see Jerri when Covid hit, putting such travels on hold. I was so looking forward to hugging her & to just spend time with her. I love you Jerri. You have forever been in my heart. I will see you again. God bless your family.

My Aunt D took care of me and prayed for me, a very special prayer when I was extremely sick when I was about 12...we were in Oklahoma, visiting Grandma because she wasn't doing well and I got really sick and couldn't go to Grandma's funeral because of it. Aunt D prayed over me, several times....but there was one time in particular, in the living room, at Grandpa's, and it was really late at night...she healed me. It was a special moment that I'll never forget. I am so sad that she's no longer with us but I know that she's at peace and with our other family members now. ❤️👤😊
When we have moments of sadness about our loss, may we try to remember the good times and happy memories and hold them close to our hearts. I'll miss you Aunt D. May you rest now, in peace. Love you very much, your niece, Lea
