James sent a virtual gift in honor of Kimberly.

We met in October of 1991 at the Tulsa fair. Soon afterwards we shared a home together and without hesitation planned to create a family. By July 24th 1994 shortly after 3pm our first son Bryant James Farris was born at the Doctors hospital. Later on November 19th 1995 at 5 pm our second son Dustin Kenneth Farris was born. By spring of 1996 we moved to Nashville for a year. Though things weren't perfect we had a wonderful family and a nice home. By summer of 1997 irreconcilable differences unfortunately divided our precious family prematurely. We remained friends and did our best to maintain a positive relationship for the children's sake. Kimberly always enjoyed camping, listening to country western and running wild having fun with her friends and family. Cooking outdoors having a glass of cold wine keeping up with important family gossip and simply enjoying life as a young mom. Almost always easy going with a sense of humor. Thank you Kim for giving birth to my sons. You are missed very much by us all. We will never forget your smile and kindness. I love you forever and always. James Farris
