Memories I have plenty with my uncle Jimmy I'm used to live across the street on 49th was like 8-10 years old. I always wanted to go over there and see all the fun I heard coming from there with family and friends that stop over there to visit. Well his nephew James Kelly came over to the house said come let's go to my uncle's house you me to go with a big smile across my face. We went and visit I felt like was at home in a way just from the comfort there. Any ways later that day James and I went squirrel hunting we showed back up at jimmys with a squirrel apiece . James said he's uncle will skin them and cook them. Nope uncle jimmy made us skin them .As they all got a laugh out of me so doing so jimmy finished for me. He ask if we was an cooking them I said not mine today .jimmy boy don't take it home and not eat it or don't let your .on throw it away. Cause all that time that was put in it seem like forever. Well some time another my mother Lou Ann tossed it in the trash not knowing what it was by in the bag. I was sad went to Jimmy's and told him the story about mom tossing it in the trash. Asked him to do another one if we went back for another one he said no son I did the first one for you number two is on you... There was never another attempt to do that again...
