William "Bill" Miller

MAR 14, 1941 - FEB 18, 2022

Bill Miller age 80 of Broken Arrow died Friday February 18, 2022 in his home. He was born at home in Blue Mound Kansas on March 14, 1941. He was the son of Dick & Madge Miller.

He was married to Teri Miller on December 8, 1990. Bill had 2 children from a previous marriage. Andrea Adams from Nevada, Mo, and Steve Miller (Heather) of Midland, Tx.

He was a General Contractor who specialized in building apartments all over Kansas. He retired after completing his own 110 apartment complex in Liberal, Ks. In some ways Bill was a collector and hobbyist. He collected coins, watches, clocks, cash registers and old watch and clock advertising. As a hobbyist he liked to repair and sell those antique watches. He also loved to take pictures of his kids and grandkids and spend time with them. He loved to golf and a great fan of the KC Chiefs. He followed in his fathers footsteps as a Mirza Shriner.

Bill is survived by his wife Teri, his 2 children Andrea and Steve (Heather), 3 grandchildren Kendall Miller of Philadelphia Pa, Jenny Emery of Nevada, Mo, and Aaron Emery of Nevada, Mo. and his niece Richelle Hook (Steve) of Ellsworth, Ks. and 2 brother -in-laws Randy Hamilton of Green Valley, AZ and Rick Hamilton of Columbia Mo.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents and his brother, John Richard (JR) Miller. Memorial Services will be held in Broken Arrow, Ok at Floral Haven and his remains placed in a crematory niche at Floral Haven. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The American Heart Association or NAWCC (National Association of Watch & Clock Collectors).

Madge and Dick Miller were our neighbors for a lot of years in Pleasanton, Ks and our parents were close friends. JR and i were best friends until we graduated from High School. Bill always oversaw all our antics as he was 10 years older. He was such a great guy when we were kiddos to put up with the two of us that could be trouble makers. Sorry to hear he has passed as talked to him a few years ago when they found JR killer after 20 years of looking. I hope now they can all be reunited. Prayers for Bill's wife Terrie and all his other family members. Ann Springer Shaffer

Teri, Bill will be missed very much by Jo Karen and Bill Brown and all who know Bill Miller. We enjoyed trips together and visiting each others homes, as well as alumni celebrations of the school at Pleasanton, Ks. We sent a memorial contribution to the Pleasanton Alumni fund in Bill Millers name. Hoping to keep in touch in the days and years ahead.
