Mrs. Marie (as my children call you) you will be missed dearly. The Saturday morning teas and conversations about God, life, family and friendship are my most treasured memories with you. The love laughter and tears are what helped me get through some difficult times. I am thankful and forever blessed to have been able to know you and love you! I can only imagine how you are celebrating with your husband in Heaven! You will be missed by the Cotney family dear friend.

Marie was one of my DEAR friends! Over the past 15 years or more we would go to lunch or just visit at her house (and on her back patio, which I loved). We would both check in on each other every few days or so, especially if we notice the car hadn't moved recently. We discussed our belief in the Lord/Jesus many times. We already miss Marie SO Much! But I know she is safe in the arms of Jesus & fellowshipping with her husband Jim & family & friends that passed on to Heaven before her ❤️🙏
🙏😭❤️
