Yvonne Ketcher lit a candle in honor of Susan.

Sue and Bill were my neighbors across the street in my old neighborhood. I would be sitting on the front porch and look up and here she would come all smiles. We would sit and talk and I enjoyed every minute. After my husband Kent died in 2013, she came more often. I am so sad to hear this. I admired everything about her and she will be missed. My deepest sympathy to her family.

I have had Sue on my mind a lot recently, sadly realizing that since she had moved, we probably wouldn't see her pull up in the Jag another time. We have missed her volunteering so faithfully at the Coleman, a task she did for so long. When I would ask, she seemed happy to catch me up on her children and grandchildren. We thought so much of her. She was a great person who is truly missed. Danny Dillon and the Coleman Theatre staff and volunteers

Kind and distinguished lady! One on Miami's cornerstones. Honored to know her since Rockdale School in class with her daughter Lisa. Later Sara still uses the 1970's cookbook Sue gave her. Prayers of comfort for the family.
