We met Elaine, Bob and Bode through Reagan after they moved to Arkansas. When Reagan was in high school, one summer he wanted help building a saddle. RD and Reagan worked on the saddle all that summer. Bob and Elaine just took us in as part of their family. RD, Bode and Reagan worked together in several movies. When Bob needed to move to Oklahoma for his job, Elaine and Reagan went with him. Bode was still in college and he lived with us until he graduated. Elaine was a sweet lady and a precious friend to us. If you needed help, depending on what you needed, one of the Wilson's would be there. She missed Bob so much after he passed but when she lost Reagan this past January, it truly broke her heart. I will miss talking to my friend. We made some great memories, cried a few tears and laughed a lot. Sometimes you were my mother, sometimes my sister and always my friend, miss you dear lady, Linda
