Rick Cochran posted:

I only knew Loren for a few years while attending House of David. We talked so many times before and after service. Loren was an inspiration to me, and I looked forward to the conversations that we would have. I am blessed to have known him and miss him dearly ... as we all do. He is now safe in the arms of Yeshua!

Al and I have a hole in our hearts where Loren's presence resided. Loren was an encouragement to us both. He was a mighty man of God with a quiet spirit. He will be sorely missed, but he is not missing us as he is having the time of his now-young life in the presence of Jesus. Blessings to Joy and the family.
