Billy Lee Delozier

SEP 4, 1930 - OCT 31, 2022

Bill Delozier, 92, of Tulsa, Oklahoma passed away October 31, 2022, surrounded by family in his home. Bill was born September 4, 1930, to Roy and Rosa Delozier. He graduated from Midwest City High School in 1950 and joined the United States Air Force in January 1951. Bill went to work for American Airlines in 1955, immediately after his honorable discharge from the Air Force. On June 2, 1956, he married the love of his life, Opal Harrison. Bill and Opal had 3 children, Angela, Patty, and Rebecca and one nephew by birth but son by choice, Phil Allen. Bill continued to work for American Airlines for the rest of his career, retiring on February 1, 1994. Bill and Opal were co-owners of Luv's Hallmark Shop in Tulsa from 1983 through 1991.

Bill loved family, travel and outdoor adventures. Every summer weekend when their children were young was spent at a lake in Oklahoma, usually with his sister, Jean Nelson and her family. Bill loved taking the kids out water skiing and fishing with Opal and his family and friends. Bill and Opal traveled extensively in the United States, visiting all 50 states. They also traveled to Europe two times to visit and explore with his brother Darrel and sister-in-law Doshia. Family and close friends often accompanied them on their many adventures in the United States, including RV-ing with Darrel and Doshia Delozier, traveling to Hawaii with Pat and Leonard Anderson, and road trips with Don and Carol Yelton. Countless holidays, game nights, and meals were hosted by Bill and Opal throughout their 66 years of marriage.

Bill is survived by his wife, Opal Delozier, his daughters, Angela Henry (Thomas), Patty DeCamp (Derick), and Rebecca Arroyo (Bill), grandchildren Aaron Berkowitz, Amber Cue (Steve), Rachel Berkowitz (Veronica), Melinda Thompson (Scott), Laura Leech and their children, Ally Cue, Abby Cue, Annabelle Cue, Billy Young, Barron Soares, Dane Wilburg, Yvonne Wilburg, and Americus Berkowitz-Cole, as well as

Bill and Opal hired me to work at Luv's when I was 16 years old and I loved every minute of my time there. Mr. Bill was funny and sometimes mischievous but in a funny way. The Christmas parties Bill and Opal held at their home were simply the best and I will forever cherish that time in my life. RIP Mr. Bill, you were one of the great ones. My sincerest condolences to Opal and the rest of the family, sending love and hugs. All my love, Nikki Moore-Scott
