Jim, I will be forever grateful because Elaine touched my life. Her smile was ever present and she definitely had the gift of encouragement. Strength from our Heavenly Father empowered her to live with such illness so long. She was one strong lady! I loved her, a sister in the Lord as I love you, a brother!

ELAYNE was the most precious person to me. She was a true gift from God. You are greatly missed, sweet Auntie, but I know you are finally home. 🙏 I am so proud of you and feel so lucky to have had you in my life. Everything is just right, (the words you often said). I LOVE YOU ETERNALLY. -Your "baby", Christy.

When we were young we used to play "The Game of Life." One time when we were older, we played over and over staying up all night, laughing and spending quality sister time. If you've play the game you know how it goes..Elayne played her real life game well, went to college, had great jobs, married the love of her life and eventually retired. Her "car" runneth over with nieces & nephews! It not goodbye my dear sweet sister, it's I'll see you again when my game is over. I love you Elayne!❤️

Jim, Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. The lose of a loved one is never easy, but especially during a holiday season. We know though that Elayne is no longer ill or in pain. We enjoy the thought of the reunion with them someday. Stay strong, lean and trust in God and His blessings.
