Mark was a great man of God. I miss him. Walking into moms and saying hello to him if he was awake in his recliner.. he is at peace now. No more pain or discomfort. This isn't goodbye, it's see you later, as my Uncle Don says.

Mark was our brother-in-law, and we loved him. He was never hesitant to share his beliefs about God or politics. We all should be so passionate about our faith! We'll miss him on our Oklahoma visits. Sending love and condolences to Kathy, Ryan, and rest of family!
