I have so many good memories of her. She was the first to invite me into the family and made me feel so welcome. I was so young and she was always there with a shoulder or helpful advice. I loved her & have thought of her so often. Wish I had taken the time to visit. We always think they'll be another day, but then those days are gone. I love you always & sending hugs & prayers to all the family. I just had surgery last week, so I won't be attending the service. But know my heart is there with you.
