I will always be grateful that I met Barbara. We were co-workers at the Job Corps clinic and remained dear friends ever after. She was a fantastic nurse and would jokingly refer to herself as Dr. James. She was a tremendous friend. We loved to have long conversations sharing our lives and remembering crazy things that happened at the clinic. She was one in a million. I send my sympathy and love to all the family. Barbara was a wonderful sister-in-law. When Charles and I had our condo in Tulsa, Barbara and I would begin early each day to get to as many estate sales as we could. What a wonderful friend she turned out to be. She will be missed. Patty White
