Francis was such a dear person, always opening her home to friends and family for a meal or conversation. I have such fond memories of her and her devotion to her family. ❤️❤️

No matter the years you prepare, it doesn't make anything easier. I remember being in such denial about my great grandmother getting older and every time wondering if it would be my last, needless to say that's what happened. I miss Gg more than ever imaginable. She was always there whenever I needed it the most and always will be.
