We have known Trish for the past 9 years. We met @ the gym just by coincidence but came friends. The smile she had and the company she made, the lives she touched will never be the same. With her tennis shoes and her cheerful face each morning she made her way to that sacred place. We will miss her terribly and pray that her family is able to find complete solace in knowing she was sincerely beloved. Rick and Janee'

Trish, none of seems real. I know your family are going to miss you terribly. You were such a good person. You and your family were such a wonderful neighbor to us for 26 years. Always watching out for us and helping us whenever we knocked. I have missed our talks out in the yard the past couple of years. Much love to Keith, Michael, Jennifer and "your boys".
