During a mpaact spring retreat, Jake got my breakfast for me because it was my birthday and he wanted to do something small to make it special. That gesture of kindness meant a lot to me. I'm deeply saddened to hear of his passing. He will be so very missed.

From Fine Arts to being my walking buddy every Wednesday from North Intermediate to the Pastor's offices and setting up for youth group, he was truly a great friend and brother to so many and touched everyone's life he came in contact with. He will be truly missed.
