Peggy Louise Owen

DEC 18, 1927 - JUN 18, 2023

Peggy Louise Owen, 95, of Tulsa, Oklahoma passed away on June 18, 2023. She was born on December 18, 1927. She was known for her vibrant personality, artistic talent, and selfless dedication to various causes. Her presence will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Her creative spirit blossomed through her exquisite artwork, and she found joy in expressing herself through various mediums. Peggy's talent truly shone in her painted pumpkins, which became iconic symbols of the fall season in her community. The beauty she brought to each pumpkin was a testament to her artistic prowess and her ability to capture the essence of the world around her.

Beyond her artistic endeavors, Peggy was a proud member of the Eastern Star, an organization that supported and uplifted women. She cherished the bonds she formed within the sisterhood and actively contributed to the betterment of her community through their initiatives. Peggy's commitment to her Eastern Star family was unwavering, and she served as an inspiration to many.

Peggy's compassionate nature extended beyond her artistic pursuits and affiliations. She dedicated her time and energy to volunteering at her children's schools, creating a positive impact on the lives of numerous students. Her warm smile and caring demeanor left a lasting impression on both young minds and fellow parents alike.

Additionally, Peggy served as a pink lady at the local hospital, spreading comfort and support to patients and their families during challenging times. Her dedication to the well-being of others was admirable, and she brought solace to countless individuals through her selfless acts of kindness.

Peggy's legacy will live on through the memories she created and the lives she touched.
