Marjorie Marie Rivett

JAN 25, 1930 - JUL 15, 2023

Marjorie M. Rivett, an extraordinary woman with a green thumb and a passion for nurturing the beauty of nature. Marjorie, born on January 25, 1930, in Fort Worth, Texas, peacefully passed away on [date] in [location].

In 1943, Marjorie's family relocated to Oklahoma, where she would eventually establish her roots and cultivate her love for gardening. She attended Will Rogers High School, graduating with the class of 1947. Following her education, she further honed her skills at the Roberts Beauty Training Center, graduating in 1949.

Marjorie dedicated 30 remarkable years of her life to the Tulsa Public Schools' Child Nutrition Department. Her unwavering commitment and nurturing spirit were not limited to plants alone but extended to the children she served, ensuring they received nourishment and care.

Outside of her professional life, Marjorie's true passion blossomed in her garden. She possessed a deep understanding of the natural world, transforming landscapes into vibrant tapestries of color and life. Her ability to coax life from the earth was truly remarkable, and her gardens were a testament to her dedication and talent.

Marjorie is survived by her loving daughter, Sherrie, and son-in-law, Michael Kinnear, who stood by her side, providing support and comfort throughout her life's journey. She will be fondly remembered by her granddaughters, Christina Hauer and her husband Keary, and Elizabeth Kinnear and her husband Chris Leonard. Her great-grandchildren, Xavier Hauer and Emily Leonard, were the apple of her eye and a constant source of joy and inspiration.

She leaves behind her beloved sister, Ellen Parker, whose bond with Marjorie was forged through a lifetime of shared experiences. Marjorie's memory will forever be cherished by her family, friends, and all those fortunate enough to have witnessed the beauty she created.

Marjorie now reunites with her beloved husband, Harry Rivett, and her parents, as well as her two cherished brothers. Together, they will watch over those she left behind, their spirits forever intertwined.

Marjorie's faith was an integral part of her life, and she was an active member of Parkview Baptist Church. She found solace and strength in her spiritual community, where she shared her love for nature and the beauty of God's creation.

Marjorie M. Rivett will be remembered as a remarkable woman who found joy in nurturing life and creating beauty with her hands. Her legacy as an amazing gardener and her unwavering dedication to her family and community will continue to inspire and flourish. As we bid farewell to this exceptional woman, we take solace in knowing that her memory will continue to bloom in our hearts, just like the gardens she tended with so much love and care.
