In Loving Memory of Timothy Allen Demmitt "Timmy"

Timothy Allen Demmitt, affectionately known as Timmy, passed away peacefully on July 21, 2023. He lived a life filled with love, passion, and an unwavering devotion to the things that brought him joy.

Born on August 25, 1972, Timmy's love for music blossomed from an early age. Music was the rhythm that resonated within his soul, and he took great delight in exploring various genres. However, it was the joy of teaching others about music that truly ignited his spirit. He shared his profound knowledge and appreciation for melodies with all who were eager to learn, leaving an indelible mark on their hearts.

Alongside his musical passion, Timmy had an ardent affection for movies, with John Carpenter's classic "Halloween" holding a special place in his heart. He found immense pleasure in watching and discussing films, but the true magic was experiencing them with his beloved wife, Janis. They cherished their time together, cuddled up watching horror flicks, and creating cherished memories that will be treasured forever.

Family was the cornerstone of Timmy's life. His love for his wife, Janis, was evident to all who knew them, as their bond was a shining example of devotion and companionship. They shared 28 years of love and laughter, weathering life's challenges together, and creating a life built on love and understanding.

Timmy was a devoted father to his children, Nate and Allie. His love for them knew no bounds, and he took pride in witnessing them grow into remarkable individuals. He instilled in them the same passion for music and cinema, leaving behind a legacy that will endure through generations.

Timmy's adoration for animals was evident in the way he cherished his dogs, whom he considered an integral part of his family. They brought him immense joy and comfort throughout his life.

Timothy Allen Demmitt will be remembered as a man who lived life to the fullest, fueled by his love for music, movies, and the precious moments spent with those he held dear. He leaves behind a legacy of kindness, wisdom, and a passion for sharing the joy of life's simple pleasures.

Timmy, your light will forever shine bright in the hearts of all who knew you. May you rest in eternal peace, knowing that you touched the lives of so many with your genuine love and passion.

He is survived by his wife Janis Demmitt, his children Nate Demmitt and Allie Demmitt; his mother Elizabeth Ann Demmitt, his sister Suzye Worley and husband Tony, and Thomas Demmitt; and a host of other family and friends.

He is reunited with his brother Sam May.

I remember we would play Tekken on the PS2 together all the time, and he would sit there and do the same move over and over and I used to get soo frustrated because he would rub it in with a big ol grin on his face.I love you Dad, and I miss you everyday.
