Barbara Ann Jenkins

JAN 19, 1949 - SEP 17, 2023

Barbara Ann Jenkins passed away peacefully in Tulsa, Oklahoma on September 17, 2023. She was born on January 19, 1949, to her loving parents, Tanzy Ledford, and Nelta (McCaskey) Ledford. Barbara was a lifelong resident of Tulsa, where she touched the hearts of everyone she met with her outgoing spirit.

Barbara graduated from Daniel Webster High School in 1967. On November 26, 1971, she embarked on a new chapter in her life when she married the love of her life, Doyle Jenkins. Together, they built a beautiful family and shared a deep bond that lasted throughout their journey together. Barbara and Doyle were blessed with two wonderful daughters, Jodi, and Lindsey.

Barbara found immense joy in being a devoted stay-at-home mom and homemaker, pouring her heart and soul into creating a loving and nurturing environment for her family. Her shopping escapades were legendary, and she was known as a shopaholic who always got the best deals. Her sassy and witty personality added a touch of joy to every gathering.

Family was the cornerstone of Barbara's life. She was a dedicated and loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She took great pride in her role as a matriarch and cherished every moment spent with her family. Gardening was another passion of hers, and she cultivated a beautiful garden that mirrored the love and care she showered upon her loved ones. Moreover, Barbara's furry companions brought her immense comfort and joy.

Barbara and her husband, Doyle, shared countless adventures together, traveling in their camper van and creating cherished memories along the way. Their bond was unbreakable, and though Doyle passed away in 2018, their love continues to endure in the hearts of their family.

Barbara was preceded in death by her husband, Doyle Jenkins, her parents, Tanzy and Nelta Ledford, her brother Gary Ledford, and sister-in-law Maryetta, and their beloved dog, Snoodle.

Barbara Ann Jenkins

Barbara leaves behind a legacy of love and laughter, survived by her devoted family: daughters Jodi Stevenson and Chris Deininger, Lindsey Johnson and Cochise Ainge, brother Kenneth Ledford and Sherry, granddaughter Kori Lyons and Wyatt, grandson Gavin Biggs and Chaylin, granddaughters MacKenzie Biggs and Kaci Johnson, grandson Kolby Johnson and Hannah Goodwin, great-granddaughter Rylie Lyons, and great-grandson Levi Lyons. In her final years, Barbara found comfort in the companionship of her loyal/spoiled dog, Twizzler, and her evil cat, Frankie. They were always by her side, offering solace and love.

A graveside service to honor Barbara's life will be held at 12:00 PM on Friday, September 22, 2023, at Floral Haven Memorial Gardens. The family kindly extends an invitation to anyone wishing to attend the service.

Arrangements are entrusted to Floral Haven Funeral Home.

I remember more good things about my sister than I could ever write about her! She loved so many people and so many animals! When we were young we played in a sand pile that our daddy made under a large tree in the yard for hours at a time! My daddy loved her so much and she loved him very much too! I remember in 1967 - Barbara babysitting with my oldest son Jeff when he was a baby. She loved playing and being with him. Barbara started working at a photo-mat drive through and met Doyle Jenkins, of course he kept driving through until he got Barbara to go out with him! They fell in love and got married! They were always in love with each other! Best friends forever! I remember that she and Doyle went to church together every Sunday! They read the Bible together every day! They watched sermons together on tv together too. They loved the Lord Jesus! They both believed in Jesus and received Him as their Lord and Savior! Barbara asked me to pray for her children and grandchildren several years ago and I still pray for them every day. She wants them to know Jesus and serve Him throughout their life! As a mother that was her most important wish for them! I know that she is with the rest of her family in heaven right now! I love my Sister and I will always miss her! I know that she is safe and happy now! Kenneth ~ Barbara's brother forever!9/21/23, 12:10 PM
