My Uncle passed on. Some may have never met him but he was an old soul, very wise and very good hearted. He never failed to crack a smile on the most solemn peoples' faces. He spent a lot of his time in my life when I was young and as I've grown, he was much like a grandfather to me. He told me he lived vivaciously until he was 29 years old, then he did a 180 and set his sights on furthering his career at American Airlines. He made many friends and received many awards during his time there. He is preceded in his death by his great nephew and my brother Christopher Compton 24, his uncle Herb, his father Robert, mother Etta, and many other aunts and uncles. His living relatives are extensive but include his elder brother Ron, sister Carol, cousin Christine, his niece Courtney, her husband Rick and their two children Jackson and Milo. His nephew Chris and his wife Emma and their daughter Brittany and her three children Lukas, Khloe, and Rylie. Chris and Emma's other daughters include my sisters Gabrielle and Tori, her fiancé James, and myself, Claire and my child, Christian. He has been returned home to heaven to be in his loving parents arms once again. We want to remember the last days of his life as being in peace, as he was able to stay in my parents home for his last week with us 🌸

I'm the little sister Jamie referenced. I tell people that my early years were formed by a pack of wolves also called teenagers. Kimmy and Jamie were two of them, as were my brother and all their friends who found themselves at our house. Tommy was one of those teens. He was at the house when I awoke in the mornings, and at the house when I went to sleep at night. As a little girl I loved having books read to me, and I would take the same book from person to person for each one to read it. Though I have no concrete memory, I'm certain Tommy was required to read to me frequently. He was there so much that I insisted he was one of my brothers. As I grew into a teen and an adult, Tommy would always take the time to chat with me when I tan into him. He truly was one of the nicest people around. Micah Jo Riddle Davis

Tommy lived up the street from us when we were growing up. He was always at our house, in fact our youngest sister thought he was her brother he was there so much. He was a good friend and a great guy. We had great times together.

Best Uncle Ever! Always caring, loved to pick a fight for fun. Tommy never forgot a birthday. Full of life and he lived it with enthusiasm. Blessed to spend his last moments here holding his hand. We told him we loved him and we said to tell everyone in Heaven Hi. He's at peace, Amen!
