Andrea Warren, age 60, of Thornton, Colorado, passed away on October 8, 2023. She was born on December 18, 1962, in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Andrea was a very independent and private person. She had a lifelong love for dogs and treated them like family. Cross stitching with beads and gold thread was one of her favorite hobbies, and she was known for her tricky card playing skills in canasta. Andrea enjoyed reading and listening to books on her iPad, as well as solving puzzles when she was younger. She was raised in the Methodist Church in Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Andrea attended Webster High School and later pursued higher education at the University of Tulsa. She had a successful career as an accountant, specializing in gas and oil leases, general accounting, and working on the SAP project. She began her career at Amoco and worked in Tulsa, Houston, and Chicago. Following the BP Amoco merger, Andrea transitioned to Accenture. She later joined DCP Midstream, working in Houston, Tulsa, and Denver.

Andrea was preceded in death by her parents, Andy J and Eloise Warren, her maternal grandparents Ray and Isadora Whitmeyer, and her paternal grandparents Joseph and Ethel Warren. She is survived by her sister, Julianne Warren, her aunt Paula Foster, her three best friends Lisa McElroy, Pam Downey, and Karen Lafitte, as well as her adopted niece Samantha McElroy. Andrea also leaves behind numerous cousins from the Warren and Whitmeyer families.

In lieu of flowers, per family request, memorial donations can be made to the Riverdale Animal Shelter at 12155 Park Blvd, Brighton, Colorado 80601, or to St. Jude's Children's Hospital in Andrea's memory.

Bobby Domingue posted:

Juli, Of course we loved all of our Oklahoma cousins and we so looked forward to your visits with us in Louisiana when we were in our younger days. However, Andrea, the youngest of our cousins, will hold a special place in our hearts, because of her sweet temperament and gregarious personality. We will never forget the kindness and thoughtfulness she showed to Mom and Dad as they lived out their final days. A treasure in our home is a needlepoint Angel we have inherited and is hanging on our living room wall which Andrea crafted and gave to Mom when she was sick. It must have taken her many weeks of careful work to accomplish this piece of work. We pray that the memories you have of Andrea are just as endearing. We pray also that our loving God has welcomed her into His presence and that she was escorted there by a host of Angels. May God bless you and comfort you. Bobby and Karen Domingue
