Lora Wise posted:

Sonny Kamp was my boss at Fina Ser. He helped all the time. He covered my back when I lost money because I was very new to working with the public and cashier. I learned so much from him. He always said," I reminded him of his daughter because I was a new Christian and she was also. I know the Lord sent my path across his because he is the reason I kept my job. I think him so much for his patience with me
