Betty Lovevone O'Banion

DEC 1, 1943 - JAN 7, 2024

In loving memory of Betty Lovevone O'Banion, born on December 1, 1943, and peacefully passed away on January 7, 2024, marking the 58th anniversary of her devoted marriage to her beloved husband, Rex O'Banion. Betty's life was a testament to the unwavering love she had for her family, a love that spanned 57 years of marriage.

Betty was a cornerstone of her family, living and breathing for her children and grandchildren. Her laughter echoed through the years, and she had an extraordinary ability to find humor in life's moments. A dedicated gardener, Betty found solace and joy among her flowers.

Her home reflected her warmth and care, as Betty had a keen eye for detail and continually sought to improve her surroundings, even in the face of challenges. She leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and a home filled with her unique touch.

Betty is survived by her son, Scott O'Banion, and his wife, Heather, as well as her son, Sean O'Banion, and his wife Yuko. She will be deeply missed by her cherished grandchildren: Sakura, Mizuki, and Makoto O'Banion, as well as her brother Carl Scott.

In her passing, Betty is now reunited with her beloved husband, Rex O'Banion, Parents Dorsey and Annie Scott, and brothers Ralph and Dwight Scott.

May her laughter continue to resonate in the hearts of those she leaves behind, and may the memory of Betty O'Banion be a source of comfort and inspiration for all who knew and loved her.

Betty was such a lovely person. She was always smiling and cutting up as she loved to laugh. We met at LaBarge and worked together for quite a while and when Kelly & I were ready to buy a home, she became our realtor. She did such a good job listening to us and trying to find us the perfect first home. We looked high and low in Broken Arrow and through all kinds of weather. I remember the snow being as deep as the curb but we went out in her Crown Victoria and continued on our mission. We calculated that we saw around 100 homes before finding and buying the home of our dreams. Then Betty was able to help my Mom find the home of her dreams, as well. Betty & I have remained in contact and we were sad to hear that Rex had passed. We'll miss Betty and are sending our heartfelt condolences to her family. Debbie & Kelly Kummings

I am so sorry to see this. I send all my love and condolences to the family. We had so much fun at the reunions and at Aunt Jonnie's, and when they came to my house. I doubt that I get to come, there are a lot of if's. Just know I will be there in spirit and may God Bless the family! I love all of you so much! If you ever can, come see me in my forever home. Brenda Simmons lit a candle in honor of Betty.

My dearest friend, Betty, started working together at Parker's in June of 1965. We reconnected on Facebook many years ago and stayed in touch constantly in posts, texts and by phone. We would talk late into the night discussing our experiences, kids and grandkids. We spent so much time laughing at ourselves and sharing funny stories. She was a blessing to my life and my hero because of her bravery during her darkest times. I'm going to miss her late night phone calls and am so thankful to have my precious memories of her and her family. I'm thankful that she is now with Rex, her mother and father and two of her brothers. Her body is healthy again, she's young and celebrating with her loved ones with our Savior. She didn't attend church in our later years but always attended Jenks First Baptist Church online with me and some of our other friends. She had a strong faith and blessed many people. Thankfully she is only a breath away.
