Barbara Murray

MAR 20, 1936 - FEB 4, 2024

Barbara A. Murray was born in March 20, 1936 in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania. She passed away on February 4, 2024 in Tulsa Oklahoma after a decline in her health, Barbara was only 87 years of age.

Barbara is survived by her daughter Anne Feher, her son in law Steven Feher, her grandsons Maxwell and Sam Feher, her nieces Pat Slosar and Susan Lussier, her nephews William, Dennis and Timothy Dawes, and great niece Stacey Eby and great nephew Micheal Slosar and many loyal friends and extended family. Barbara was predeceased by her father Howard Hilt, her mother Eleanor Hilt and her sisters Patricia and Joanne, and great nephew Brian Slosar.

Barbara received a BFA in Art at Seton Hill College and worked several years as stain glass artist, muralist, and mosaic artist. Several of her stained glass panels appeared at the Pittsburgh Aquarium and she had murals at the Pittsburgh Playhouse. Barbara earned a Masters of Education from the University of Pittsburgh and embarked on a career of text books sales and retired as a regional sales manager. Barbara's sales career lead to living in Texas, New Jersey, and California before retiring to Oklahoma to be a full time grandmother.

Barbara loved to travel. Her first international trip was to Rome for the canonization of Saint Elizabeth Seton and her last was a river cruise in Germany the weekend after 9/11. Barbara loved art and music and passed on that love to her daughter and grandsons. While living in California, Barbara fell in love with cross country biking and took up water color painting and photography. Barbara loved to shop for anything and everything. Barbara was a volunteer at the museum of art at University of Oklahoma in Norman and the Philbrook museum in Tulsa. Barbara was gifted a puppy named Fynn McCool when she retired, and he was the last great love of her life.

Barbara suffered from many physical ailments in the last years of her life, but somehow bore these ailments with grace. She found happiness in her grandsons, in the patio garden at University Village, listening to classical music on her radio, and watching Kevin Costner in Yellowstone.
