Marjory Frances Hagan

JAN 7, 1923 - MAR 3, 2024

Marjory Frances Hagan of Tulsa, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on Sunday, March 3, 2024, at the age of 101. Born on January 7, 1923, to Floyd Howerton and Bertha (Mallee) Howerton, Marjory leaves behind a legacy of love and will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Marjory was more than just a loving family member; she truly never met a stranger. Alongside her husband Henry, she dedicated herself to the success of their company business, Hagan Plumbing, where her hard work helped build a thriving enterprise. Yet, despite her busy schedule, Marjory always found time to give back to her community. She selflessly volunteered at Hillcrest Hospital, brightening the days of patients and staff alike by delivering flowers and answering phones in her spare time. In her moments of leisure, Marjory found joy in the simple pleasures of life. Whether tending to her garden, taking in the solitude of the lake, or gathering with loved ones, she embraced each moment with grace and gratitude.

Marjory's life was marked by her unwavering commitment to her family, her community, and her passions. She is survived by her daughter Suzanne Roy of Tulsa, Oklahoma, granddaughters Cindy Shore of Owasso, Oklahoma, and Sharilyn Vandiver and husband Bryan of Collinsville, Oklahoma. Although Marjory was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Henry O. Hagan, and daughter, Dianne Floto, their memory lived on in her heart every day.

Marjory's zest for life was contagious, and her presence brought warmth and joy to all who knew her. May Marjory rest in eternal peace, knowing she was deeply cherished and will be profoundly missed.

There are no public services scheduled at this time.
