I will miss Kay, my sweet Christian Sister in Christ. From the time together as Kay as my Supervising Speech Pathologist for five elementary school's in Tulsa, visiting at church, and later spending time at The Grove with her. She loved her Reese's Peanut Butter Cups & large Braum's chocolate milk shakes. Our visits were filled with laughter and memories of our profession as educators, and our family, friends, and our beloved dogs. Today this is not a goodbye, but rather a I will see you later in Eternity. Until then, I will cherish and smile at each remembrance of you. Janna Adamo
