Beverly was always so kind to me. She loved my artwork and save it for many years as well as pictures of us with my brother. I got to know her more after she moved to Tulsa over the phone. We could talk for hours and she would tell me somewhat corny jokes to keep me entertained. I just recently learned of her passing. I hope she knows that I loved her. She has her parents and her son with her now! I miss you my friend.

I worked with Beverly in the Parks Department. She knew everything about shelter reservations, what parks had what amenities. She was a walking customer servive manuel. She loved her job and boys. She taught me a lot.

I first knew Beverly from NJ. She was my sister, Margie's best friend. I was younger, but Bev was always kind and patient with me, when I'm sure I was annoying. Bev was a fixture at our house with all the good, bad, and ugly that went on. She looked like Susan Dey from the Partridge Family. lol Bev was also hilarious. When tape recorders came out, we would record all her impressions, like: Vincent Price doing Dracula, or Lily Tomlin doing Edith Ann. Bev was a great sport in trying all the strange ethnic foods from our household. Our parents fermented garlic green tomatoes, an acquired taste. One time she made the mistake of washing a slice down with milk. A fountain of milk shot out of her mouth, an expression of the two being a bad mix. I know life was difficult for Bev the last years of her life, and I always prayed things would improve. I cherish all those childhood memories, bright points in my life, that's for sure. I'm grateful throughout life's challenges and hardships, Bev's faith remained in tact.
