Lucille "Lou" Elizabeth Hollowell

APR 3, 1940 - MAY 29, 2024

Lucille Elizabeth Hollowell, affectionately known as “GG” by her great-grandchildren and family, and "Lou" by her friends, was born on April 3, 1940, in Helena, Arkansas. She peacefully passed away on May 29, 2024, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, surrounded by her loved ones.

Lou was born to Grady Shipp and Carrie Galutza of Arkansas. She was a woman of many talents and passions, whose life was richly filled with love, family, and cherished hobbies. Lou was a gifted cook, known for her homemade chocolate pies and fudge. She found joy in oil painting, feeding, and watching hummingbirds, and always enjoyed an occasional trip to the casino. Above all, she was the best mother and homemaker, dedicated to creating a warm and loving environment for her family.

For nearly 22 years, Lou shared a wonderful companionship with her love, Bob Whiten. Together, they provided a secure and loving home, welcoming family and friends with open arms and hearts. Lou and Bob looked forward to social gatherings and always found a way to bring all their loved ones together anytime they could.

Lou was preceded in death by her oldest child, Marsha J. Siders (husband Kevin), brother, “Bubba” and her parents, Grady, and Carrie Shipp.

Lou leaves behind her loving partner, Bobbie Lee Whiten, and her four children: James Anthony “Jimmy” Taylor, Charles Clayton Taylor, Michael Hollowell (wife Lori), and Karen Hollowell. She is also survived by her three brothers and one sister: Sam “Butch” King (wife Carolyn), Joe King (wife Rita), Richard “Ricky” Shipp, and Juanita Cates. Lou’s legacy lives on through her 11 grandchildren: Brandy McKinley, Shawn Siders (wife Marsha), Josh Siders, Chris Taylor, Lisa Taylor, Eric Ruskoski, Molly Ruskoski-Voyles, Brian Taylor, Daniel Taylor, Joy Hollowell, and Reagan Hollowell. Additionally, she was blessed with 17 great-grandchildren: Katelyn, Jacob, Ryan, Mitchell, Marissa, Josiah, Jax, Gunner, Chandler, Brylee, Jayvien, Penelope, John, Jasmine, Charlie, Aidon, and Maverick, and several great-great-grandchildren.
