Shanira, Thank you for blessing me with my first granddaughter. I spent every day with Azaryia and she taught me so much about strength and Faith. For 22 days she saw her Nana's face and heard my voice. When you came to the hospital you would smile. Tell me Azaryia knows her Nana. I love you so much. You showed me so much love. I will cherish the Angels you have given me. You knew I loved Angels. I remember when we went shopping for your 8th-grade prom. I told you anything you wanted you can get it. You smiled and said everything. You picked out your clothes and shoes. After we went to the car you looked at me and said Thank you. We exchanged I love you. I was your number 1 fan in basketball and track. I remember when you would call me and we would talk. Then I would pick you up and bring you to the house. My life will not be the same. I can go on and on about our relationship. Thank you for being a beautiful spirit and daughter. Love you forever your other Mom Anna Stone.
