James Caleb Hunter

MAY 13, 1992 - JUN 26, 2024

James Caleb Hunter was born to Wesley Hunter and Tawni McKeon in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on May 13, 1992. He passed peacefully in his sleep on June 26, 2024 at his home in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

He is survived by his parents Tawni McKeon, Wesley Hunter & Laura Hunter, his sister and closest friend Cadi Revill, brother Joseph McKeon, Brother-in-law Logan Revill, niece Gracelyn James Revill and grandparents Jeral and Sandra Hunter and many aunts, uncles, cousins and close friends. He was predeceased by his parent John McKeon and his grandparents Bill and Joan Boudreau.

James attended Jenks High School, Tulsa Technology Center, Tulsa Welding School and Rankin Technical College. He worked in hand made pizza shops, cooked for many fine dining restaurants, was a welder/fabricator and most recently as a Bonder at Spirit Aerosystems.

Although his exterior was armored with edgy tattoos and body art, James Caleb was a kind and gentle soul. He was introspective, always searching for meaning and striving for a better version of himself. A staunch defender and confidant of those needing support, he often stood his ground for others. He was highly intuitive to people and the response from people who he had positive and kind words and actions for has been overwhelming.

His passions were exploring earth's natural beauty, photography, reading, lifting weights, and live music. He was a fantastic cook, an avid video gamer and pursued everything Warhammer. He obsessed over his 92' Ford Ranger pickup.

James Caleb's legacy of kindness and search for meaning continue to inspire those who knew him. As we bid farewell in this life to this beloved young man let us carry forward the light, wisdom and kindness he brought into our lives.

Hi, Bubba. I want you to always know how much I love you. There is not enough words to to say how much I love and adore you and Sissy. You and Cadi will always be the smile on my face and laughter to my heart. All the sweet and fun memories we had with you, Sissy, your momma and I. I will never forget and remember them all like yesterday. They are so dear to my heart, Bubbie. Blessings always, Caleb. Auntie.

Having to say goodbye tomor to my friend and coworker, James Hunter. As you all know, coworkers see each other more than our friends or family. So when something like this happens it's a little traumatic on the heart and emotions. We shared so much working together, we talked about life, history, family, we listened to your music, talked about your welding career, what brought you to Spirit, mental health and our goals. We learned a lot about one another in a short amount of time. You were was so intelligent, just an intriguing person. Kind and gentle. You are greatly missed. Sometimes I walk into his area, where I hear this eeire silence... all of the memories come back, and I can almost imagine you in there again. I found your notebook, with your drawings and work notes, and took it home. Your passing really bothered me. I saw you and spoke to you every day. And you're just gone. Tomorrow is never guaranteed. Prayers for your family, especially your sister who is taking it really hard.All my condolences to the family. Cyndi Hopkins
